Questions and Thoughts

How many times does Harry change his mind about men and women being able to be friends?
What prompts those changes?

The movie takes place over a few years. How many of the changes in Harry, Sally, and their relationship is just "growing up" and how much is real change? Is there a difference?

The friendship that had built up between Harry and Sally becomes disrupted after they make love. What other possible outcomes are there? Which do you think is most likely? Why?

What is the key to a good friendship?

What is the key to a good romantic relationship or marriage?

Notice the differences in the way people celebrate Christmas and New Year
